The undersigned

being the author/authors of the article entitled

.....(from here on the “Work”)

proposed to this Editor/s to be possibly published on the Journal

I/we hereby affirm to be the only author/s and owner/s of the article of the Work and that my/our submission is an original unpublished work and is not under review with any other journal.

I/we also affirm that we are not involved in any kind of conflict of interest that has conditioned our research and the drafting of the Work, and we undertake to explicitly state within the Work the names of the entities and the resources that may have financed the project.

If it should be published by your Journal, I/we transfer to the Editor of the Journal for free the exclusive right to use the article for any editorial exploitation, without space limits and within time limits according to the law in force (currently 20 years) and with every modality and technology (whether currently known or hereafter developed).

My/Our granting therefore includes reproduction in any form and by any way, communication – including, for example, also commercial opportunities with interactive digital channels (whether currently known or therefore developed) – distribution and arrangement and new elaboration.

We also grant rights for Text and Data Mining (TDM), AI training, and all similar technologies currently existing or to be developed in the future.

I/We also hereby assign to the Editor, and therefore third parties, the exclusive right to translate, distribute and communicate the mentioned Article in any language, in any way and form, the advertising exploitation rights, the right to transfer, in all or in part, for any claim, without space limits and within temporal limits according to the law in force and with any modality and technology (whether now known or hereafter developed). I/We give up receiving any copyright's remuneration about the article's publishing in your Journal.

I/We also undertake to give my/our cooperation and support if the peaceful enjoyment of the rights assigned is disturbed by claims made by third parties, for whatever reason, against the the Editor and FrancoAngeli (authorship of the Work, plagiarism, defamation, conflict of interest and/or unfair competition, ownership of the Work, non-payment of agreed fees, etc.), and in any case to indemnify them against the claims or actions of such third parties. All the above guarantees and obligations shall remain in force for the entire duration of the rights assigned.

I/we therefore declare and guarantee that the material delivered is my/our exclusive property and that any images included in the text are free of rights or otherwise that I/we have acquired permission for publication.

If the Work is co-written, it is my/our responsibility to state within it the names of all the Authors who contributed to the research and writing of the Work, specifying their academic affiliation and, if possible, their ORCID.

If the Work concerns natural persons or contains information that makes a subject identifiable, it is our/their responsibility to declare to Editor and/or FrancoAngeli the explicit adherence to the Dichiarazione di Helsinki developed by the World Medical Association (WMA). If the Work involves experiments with animals, it is my/our responsibility to provide Editor and FrancoAngeli with a statement of my/our compliance with national and institutional standards for the respect of laboratory animals, according to the Recommendations for the Conduct, Reporting, Editing, and Publication of Scholarly Work in Medical Journals, redacted by the International Committee of Medical Journal Editors (ICMJE).

I/we declare and guarantee that by signing this Agreement I/we do not and will not violate the rights of any third party, such as, but not limited to, my/our collaborators and curators in general of parts of the Work. I/We also declare that the content of the Work complies in all its parts with the regulations in force – including the law on authors’ moral rights – consequently indemnifying and guaranteeing both the Editor of the Journal and FrancoAngeli from any claims that may be made against them by third parties.

If I/we have used Artificial Intelligence (AI) tools in writing the Work or creating images, tables, and graphs, or in the collection and analysis of data, I/we are obliged to state this explicitly and to mention in the Work which AI tool I/we have used and how. Since, according to the COPE Positioning Statement, Artificial Intelligence tools cannot be considered as “authors”, since they are not legal entities, I/we am/are solely responsible for the content of my/our research, and therefore also for the artificially generated parts.

FrancoAngeli, for its part, guarantees that it will not authorize the web harvesting of texts and data from the Work and will endeavor, as far as possible, to prevent unlawful web harvesting by third parties.

By signing this agreement, we ask you to ensure the Open Access publication and distribution of my work, according to the Creative Commons License “Attribution-NonCommercial-No Derivative Works 4.0 International (CC-BY-NC-ND)”, as reported in this page <https://creativecommons.org/licenses/by-nc-nd/4.0/>.

This license allows the reuse of the whole content for non-commercial purposes without modifying it, only if the original author's moral authorship is recognized and only if you indicate in this way the copyright of the publisher: "© Copyright FrancoAngeli".

We know that only you are authorized for the commercial use of the work, as the owner of the copyright. So you can decide to proceed with the commercialization of it if and when you consider it appropriate.
