

HISTORY OF ECONOMIC THOUGHT AND POLICY NOTES FOR CONTRIBUTORS

SUBMISSION

1. Submissions to the journal should be original unpublished work and should not be under review with any other journal. Papers should be submitted to: hstp@uniroma3.it.
2. Manuscripts shall be submitted in English. It is the author's responsibility to ensure the quality of the English text.
3. Submission of a manuscript will be taken to imply that it presents original unpublished work not under consideration for publication elsewhere.
4. Manuscripts should usually be in the range of 50.000-60.000 characters in length (spaces included), but different lengths may exceptionally be taken into consideration.
5. All manuscripts should have an abstract of less than 1000 characters (spaces included). Authors are required to provide up to 5 keywords and JEL classification (see www.econlit.org for further information).
6. Authors' affiliation and contacts should be included in a first footnote with the symbol * at the end of the Author's name. Acknowledgments are to be placed in the same footnote.
7. Books for review and other material should be sent to: email address fabio.masini@uniroma3.it; postal address Fabio Masini, Via Reims, 6 – 50126 Florence-Italy

COPYRIGHT

1. It is a condition of publication that authors assign copyright or license the publication rights in their article, including abstract, to the board of History of Economic Thought and Policy. The authors agree that the exclusive rights to reproduce and distribute the article have been given to the board of History of Economic Thought and Policy, including reprints, photographic reproductions, microfilms, or any other reproductions of a similar nature and translations. Authors may use the article after publication only with written permission from the board of History of Economic Thought and Policy and Franco Angeli.
2. Authors will receive a copyright transfer form which must be signed and returned before publication.
3. Permission to reproduce copyright material must be obtained by the author before submission and any acknowledgements should be included in the typescript or captions as appropriate. Permissions should be attached to the copyright transfer form.

STYLE GUIDELINES

1. The layout of manuscripts, including title, section (sub-) headings, footnotes, and quotations should conform to the style evidenced in the issues of this journal, using Times New Roman 12 for text and 10 for footnotes. Double quotation marks should be used for any quoted material that appears within the body of the text. Single quotation marks should be used for quotes within quotes.
2. All notes should be footnotes.
3. Italic font, rather than underlines or anything else, should be used for cited work titles, emphases, etc.
4. The first time that a person's name is used in the text, his or her first name and middle initial should also be given.
5. Symbolic letters are italicized, whether in an equation or in the text. Numbers in equations and in symbolic terms in the text are not italicized, even if they are subscripts or superscripts.
6. Diagrams, graphs and tables should also be sent as separate World, Excel or high-resolution JPG files.
7. Quotations and references (in and at the end of each Chapter) should follow this logic:

In the text:

Quotations:

“quotation” (Triffin 1981, 365-6)

“quotation” (Masini and Nania 2024, 130)

“quotation” (Masini, Nania and Sacco 2024, 121)
